Many of your children will already know Bethan from Alban City School, where she's a familiar and much-loved face.

Expected Costs at CCTS

At CCTS, we are committed to keeping our training accessible and affordable, while still providing a high-quality experience for every child. Below is an outline of expected costs across the academic year, to help families plan in advance:

Term 1 – Uniform Guidance

To support high standards of technique and confidence in class, we encourage a simple and practical uniform for all students.

Uniform requirements include:

- CCTS Theatre School T-shirt
- Black leggings, joggers or tracksuit bottoms
- Black trainers, black plimsolls, or black jazz shoes

Please note: Only the CCTS branded t-shirt must be purchased directly from our uniform shop. All other items may be sourced from high street retailers, as long as they meet the requirements.

For students trying out our club or those unsure about continuing for future terms, there is no pressure to purchase the full uniform straight away. Plain black alternatives are perfectly acceptable.

Orders can be arranged for delivery or collection.

Term 2 – Show Fee (Optional)

Students who choose to take part in our end-of-term production will be asked to pay a £25 show fee.

This fee contributes towards:

- Venue hire
- Additional staffing for rehearsals
- Administration and production costs

Participation in the show is entirely optional. Children are very welcome to continue attending our weekly drama classes even if they choose not to take part in the performance.

Term 3 – Costume and Show Ticket Costs

Costumes:

- Costume costs will vary depending on the role and production, but we always aim to keep these to a minimum.
- Wherever possible, we ask families to provide basic items from home to reduce or eliminate costume charges.
- Where costumes are supplied, they are yours to keep after the performance.

Tickets:

- Tickets for our Big Summer Show at The Radlett Centre will be available to purchase closer to the date.
- Families will also have the option to buy a digital download of the performance as a keepsake.
